WORLD POLITICS ASCENDANT

(Staff Correspondence.)

Washington, D. C., Jan. 22.—World politics has come to the fore in the minds of the people of the United States in the last few months in a way that it has not since the Spanish-American war, and now more than ever before it is realized that the United States is a grown nation playing a grown nation's part. Historians will look back upon the early years of the twentieth century as the beginning of real world politics, for the international affairs of the past have not been world-wide in the strictest sense of the word. The end of the Russo-Japanese war marked the decisive turning point in former international relations, that are now fully launched on the new basis of world politics; for until Japan established the autonomy of the east, international politics, accurately speaking, was played in the courts of Europe and the capital of the United States. The center of action has shifted to include races and nations which heretofore have acted the part of the chorus in the opera of international politics, but now are themselves full-fledged stars in their own companies.

The immediate incidents that have drawn the thoughts of the people to world politics were the California manifestations against Japanese immigration, and now the long trips of the powerful battleship fleet is a daily reminder of the new order of things. But the real reason that world politics has suddenly become interesting, is the readjustment of international viewpoints that was necessitated by the successful termination of the war for Japan. Before Japan emerged into a world factor, the United States and Europe were accustomed to do about what they pleased in the way of immigration and trade treaties when eastern races were involved. Now Japan and China show clear-cut dispositions to have the controlling say-so in their own affairs and it is just a little hard for Europe and the United States to realize the change. When John Bull appears on the world stage, Japan and China no longer will be seen dressed in picturesque costumes, echoing his sentiments and aping his movements like the well-drilled chorus they have been in the past, and, though India still appears in the chorus, it is inconceivable that so pregnant a race will be content with so modest a role for any long period in the future. So that with the shifting of the management of eastern peoples from Europe to the east itself, begins the first movement in real world politics.

England's Policy.
England doubtless foresees what would happen when she whipped Russia over the shoulders of Japan, in the late war, but to England it probably seemed preferable to have a powerful Japan at a long distance, than to have a powerful Russia right at her doors. So England gave Japan

SUE SHERIFF WHO FAILS TO SUPPLY OVERCOATS.

Montgomery, Ala., Jan. 22.—Because the sheriff of Bibb county did not furnish them overcoats, while he had them in custody on a wet day, Andrew Rensch, Tom Hyde and John Hyde have brought suit against his bondsmen for $2,000 each. They claim that they were injured by the weather. They were charged with hunting without license.

SIMS' AMBITION AGAINST STANDARD

Chicago, Jan. 22.—The United States today moved all along the line against Standard Oil, attacking the trust from three different points and incidentally directing the attack against the Santa Fe, the Nickel Plate, Monon, Lehigh Valley, A. Booth & company (the fish trust), and other allies of the Rockefeller system. District Attorney Edwin W. Sims, having cleared up the docket by two important victories, the Standard Oil and Walsh case, decided upon a general campaign against the Rockefeller trust. Mr. Sims seeks $68,000.000 fine from the Standard.

Hughes Announces His Candidacy For Presidency at Albany—He is in Hands of Party, He Declares.

ATTEMPT TO BURN TOBACCO CONCERN AT CLARKSVILLE

Clarksville, Tenn., Jan. 22.—(Special.)—An attempt was made last night to burn and dynamite the tobacco factory of Hays, Sorg & company, agents for the Italian regiments. Guards saw three negroes trying to apply a torch and fired on them. Two negroes, Tony Amen and Walter Watkins, were killed. The third escaped, but is believed to be wounded. The place was found saturated with oil and dynamite sticks were found in a number of places.

Burley People Confer.
Winchester, Ky., Jan. 22.—(Special.)—At a meeting last night burley tobacco growers appointed a committee to confer with the American Tobacco company officials in New York.

ANOTHER GUNBOAT SENT TO KEEP ORDER IN HAYTI.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Reports received today from the gunboat Eagle, doing duty at and near St. Marc, Hayti, were so serious that the state department asked that an additional vessel be sent to those waters. The navy department has designated the cruiser Des Moines as the vessel to be dispatched.

Diplomats Kneel Cap.
Mr. C. C. Capen, while stepping over a small stream yesterday, slipped on the frozen ground, and fell in such a manner as to dislocate his left knee cap. Drs. J. F. Dunn and Orey attended him and today he was resting well.

WHITTIER IS NAME OF NEW SCHOOL ON NORTH SIDE—NAMED BY KARNES.

Sister Building to Longfellow School on South Side, Which Takes Old Name.

"Whittier" is the name of the new North Twelfth street school building, and the name of "Longfellow" will, in all probability, be bestowed on the new Jackson street building. Trustee W. M. Karnes, who did much to get the building erected for the north side of the city, asked permission of the board to name the building and it was granted. Mr. Karnes found it a big job, and has knitted his forehead over the problem for some time. John Greenleaf Whittier, the poet and author, is so familiar to the school children, Mr. Karnes thought it appropriate to follow the custom of naming the building after some distinguished man, and he selected Whittier. The name will be presented to the school board and it is certain to be ratified.

The building committee has the power of naming the buildings, and voices the wish of the members in transferring the name of "Longfellow" from the old building at Fifth street and Kentucky avenue to the new Jackson street building. A rumor was current this morning that "North View" would be the name of the North Twelfth street building, but it will be "Whittier."

THE WEATHER.

PLEASANT

Fair tonight and Thursday, colder tonight. Highest temperature yesterday, 57; lowest today, 42.

At Washington it is considered an effort to burn back against Taft's Prairie Fire—The Situation.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 22.—Governor Hughes last night publicly declared his attitude toward the movement in favor of his nomination for the presidency. In a letter acknowledging notification of a resolution of endorsement recently passed by the Republican club, and appointing Friday next week for a meeting with the club at which he intimates, he will still more definitely declare himself.

He says he does not seek the office nor will he attempt to influence the selection or vote of delegates. The matter is one for the party to decide, he says, and adds that he will be content with his decision whatever it may be.

What Washington Thinks.
Washington, Jan. 22.—Hughes' announcement that he will be a presidential candidate is considered a menace to Taft, and opens the bitterest kind of battle in New York. Taft men state that Hughes is smoked out and that he has waited too long.

Tobacco Men Elect Officers.
Washington, Jan. 22.—The Independent Tobacco Manufacturers' association of America, in annual convention in this city, elected the following officers:

President, Hugh Campbell, Richmond, Va.
Vice president, William E. Slater, Louisville, Ky.
Secretary-treasurer, R. I. Whalen, Rochester, N. Y.
Directors—S. S. Bloch, Wheeling, W. Va.; George T. Brown, Winston-Salem, N. C.; C. D. Larus, Richmond, Va.; Albert Weisert, St. Louis, Mo.; Hiram B. Miller, Philadelphia, Pa.

FLEET SAILS TODAY

Rio de Janeiro, Jan. 22.—Evans' fleet is ready to sail this afternoon. The torpedo boat fleet sailed last night. President Penna will review the departing fleet.

INSURGENTS ACTIVE

Washington, Jan. 22.—Consul Livingston, at Cape Haitien, cabled the state department: "Revolutionists are in possession of neighboring villages and Cape Haitien is threatened."

STREET FUNDS CUT AND HOSPITAL IS GIVEN INCREASE

It is determined that the $40,000 deficit of the city shall be wiped out during the ensuing year. Mayor James P. Smith and members of the finance committee of the general council, who met last night, are a unit on that point, and departmental budgets will be cut to the minimum to make it possible. It may be that some small overdrifts will be the result of the close paring administered to the estimates, but even they will not exceed the $2,000 interest account created by the floating debt.

The street department will be cut close to $15,000, it is believed, and nothing but repairs will be undertaken this year. The graving of streets will be stopped for a time. The library will receive $4,000 in all probability, while Riverside hospital will be given $10,000, and required to keep within the appropriation. This year the hospital was allowed $5,000, but spent more than $9,000 while returning $7,476.60 revenue to the city. It was found impossible to cut the hospital down without impairing its usefulness.

All other departments, where possible will be trimmed a few hundred apiece, while the finance committee will give some attention to means of increasing the revenue from different sources.

The finance committee is composed of Aldermen W. T. Miller, Virgil Sherill and E. W. Baker, and Councilmen Ernest Lackey, David Flournoy and C. D. Van Meter.

MONEY ADVANCED BY WAREHOUSEMEN WHEN DELIVERED

It is Said About 250,000 Pounds of Tobacco Have Been Received.

Several Salesmen Fall Down on Examination at Guthrie.

SITUATION IS ENCOURAGING

Leading members of the tobacco growers' association in McCracken county say the situation is more encouraging at present than for many weeks and express the belief that within ten days or two weeks tobacco will be selling on the market at the prices fixed by the executive committee of the organization.

At any rate, they say the financial stringency has relaxed to such an extent that money is being secured to advance the farmers the full 60 per cent of the market price of their tobacco as soon as it is prized and placed in the warehouses for storage, and those whose confidence was so strong in the ability of the warehousemen to make good and placed their tobacco in the prize houses during the darkest days of the financial flurry when money could not be secured at all, have already received advances. Advancing money on the holdings of the farmers, it is said, will enable the association to compel the buyers to pay the prices fixed, even if they refuse the early offerings.

Up to the present time about 250,000 pounds have been delivered to the prize houses in Paducah and more tobacco is coming every day, the heaviest deliveries being made during the past ten days of any time since the season for delivery began. The association officials point to the fact that not a great deal of tobacco is grown in the county and the big deliveries that have been made to the independent and trust buyers come from Ballard and Marshall and other counties, while the tobacco that is delivered to the association houses comes from McCracken county, with the exception of five horseheads of loose packed tobacco, which has been shipped to a local prize house from Livingston county, where there is only one association prize.

Livingston county is also under the control of the McCracken county executive committee, which permits tobacco from that county to be shipped here for pricing. In Marshall and Ballard counties the association has strong organizations and the tobacco is prized at home prize houses, but will be shipped here for storage.

The prices of the different types of tobacco that has been prized and are in the storage houses has not yet been received by Salesman Veale, of the Paducah market, but he is expecting the report of the graders soon and will offer tobacco to the buyers when the prices are received. Mr. Veale is the only salesman in the three markets in this district. Out passed the examination successfully, and a considerable tangle exists at Murray, where Salesman Flood failed to make the required grade, and also at Mayfield, where Mr. Humphrey failed to pass. Both the salesmen who did not qualify are supported by their county organizations and petitions have been sent to the general managers of the association, asking that they be allowed to act as salesmen notwithstanding their failure to qualify according to the rules. The policy of compelling salesmen and graders to stand an examination before acting for the association is a new one and it is said was caused by complaint being made by the foreign buyers that the tobacco sold by the association last year was not handled properly in many respects. Manager Ewing, in addition to compelling the examinations, will employ expert inspectors to investigate the manner of handling this year and has given notice that association officials, who are found incompetent, will be held responsible on the bonds they execute. This applies especially to the prize houses who handle the tobacco, as the greatest complaint so far has been made in regard to the manner in which some of the tobacco was classed and prized.

GOING TO TEXAS

Saturday Mr. Linneus Orme and Mr. John Orme, will leave for San Antonio, Tex., where they will make their future home. Mrs. Orme and daughter, Miss Mildred Orme, will not leave until a week or two later. Mr. Orme has been connected with the Langstaff-Orme mill for 30 years, and he is compelled to go to Texas because of his falling health. The furniture has been shipped to Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Orme have been residing at Fifth street and Kentucky avenue.

JAMES F. MILLER

Mr. James F. Miller, 41 years old, died at 4:30 o'clock this morning at his home, 305 Clements street. Mr. Miller was a box maker for the Paducah Veneering company and had been a resident of Paducah 15 years. He moved here from Newport. He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Geavie Hutchinson, and Miss Sarah Miller, and one son, Mr. Robert Miller. All the children reside in this city. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and burial in Oak Grove.

Same Old Deadlock on Joint Ballot At Noon Today and Beckham Falls Short Four Votes in the Count.

Governor Sends Nomination to Succeed Henry Hines as State Examiner of Accounts—Is Referred.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 22. (Special.)—A bill passed the senate, giving the governor's stenographer $1,200. The joint ballot resulted in the house: Beckham, 46; Bradley, 47; McCreary, 2; Hurd, 1. In the senate, Beckham, 17; Bradley, 14; Blackburn, 1; McCreary, 2. Campbell voted for Blackburn. There were present 133, necessary to a choice, 67.

Hines' Successor.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 22. (Special.)—The name of M. H. Thatcher was sent to the senate as the successor to Henry Hines as state inspector and examiner. It was referred to a committee. A number of bills were offered in both houses and the senate.

WOMEN ASK MAYOR TO GET REDUCTION IN SCHOOL BOARD

Mayor Smith has been requested by the Woman's club to try to secure a change in the school board of second class cities, reducing the number from 12, two from each ward, to five members, elected from the city at large. A delegation waited on him this afternoon at his office.

That members hold four years and teachers be qualified by normal training school course. They ask also to increase the levy from 35 cents to 50 cents and the qualifications for trustee be eligibility for "teacher's second class certificate."

TWO-YEAR-OLD CHILD DIES OF PNEUMONIA.

The two-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Davis, 250 Garrett street, died last night of pneumonia. The funeral and burial took place this afternoon.

SHOOTING TAKES PLACE IN DEPARTMENT STORE.

New York, Jan. 22.—As the result of a shooting affray at noon in a restaurant in Macey's department store, Frank Brady, an advertising man, is dead, and an unknown woman, with whom he was eating, died in the hospital. The woman died of the shooting. Three revolvers were found in her handbag. She is believed to be May R. Clark. She wore a wedding ring.

JOSEPH TITSWORTH

Melber, Ky., Jan. 22. (Special.)—Joseph Titsworth, a well known farmer of this neighborhood, died last night of heart disease. Mr. Titsworth was 50 years old and leaves eight children. His wife died several years ago. The funeral and burial will be held tomorrow.

THIRD SURVEY IS COMPLETED FROM GRAVES CAPITAL

Interurban Line is Interesting Farmers of Two Counties.

Will Begin on Estimates of Three Routes

LAST RUN IS OVER THE HILLS

Civil engineers, surveying the third route for the interurban railroad between Mayfield and Paducah, reached the union station this afternoon about 3 o'clock, after being delayed several days with inclement weather. On this survey Mr. J. W. Williams and S. F. Keys, of Mayfield, and Mr. H. H. Loving, directors of the company, made the entire trip with the engineers.

This third survey has been on the east side of the railroad, and has been an "over-the-hill" route. Both of the other surveys the engineers followed the valleys. There are no hamlets on the east side of the railroad, but the engineers find that the population is much denser than on the west side, where one survey has been made.

Ten are in the party, including A. C. Harrington, chief engineer of the American Engineering company, of Indianapolis. Island creek near where the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railroad crosses was reached late yesterday afternoon, and the party spent the night in Paducah. Early this morning the engineers returned to their work, and began surveys for a bridge to cross the creek, but the party completed the land survey to the union station this afternoon. The survey leaves Mayfield at Seventh street and Broadway, which is the center of the town, and proceeds over the hills to Paducah.

Whether another survey may be made is not known definitely yet, but in all probability the engineers will return to their main office at Indianapolis and complete their maps for the cost of construction and give them to the directors as soon as possible.

The distance to Mayfield will be shortened several miles by the route of the interurban, which as surveyed is a fraction over 23 miles. By the Illinois Central railroad the distance is 25 miles from union station, and by roads through the county the distance is 27 miles.

In speaking of the success of the interurban Mr. J. W. Williams, one of the directors, was elated, and said the citizens of Mayfield, almost to a unit, realize that the interurban is a go. The route of the road will depend upon which is considered the most practicable. More than 75 per cent of the right of way has been secured on the first two surveys, and many farmers have offered the owners so much a foot to have the interurban road through their land.

Shaw Will Retire.

New York, Jan. 22.—Leslie Shaw denied today he had resigned the presidency of the Carnegie Trust company. Shaw states he has contracted to sell his company holdings and will resign March 1. Shaw has served eight months on a five year contract, at $36,000 annually. He differs with owners as to policy.

DETECTIVES ARREST LON YOUNG FOR A BURGLARY.

Lon Young, colored, was arrested last night by Detectives Bailey and Goureaux on a charge of breaking into the grocery and saloon of Tuck Lowe, Eleventh and Washington streets, last week. Lowe was awakened by the noise and took a shot at the intruder.

RAILROAD ACCIDENTS

Washington, Jan. 22.—Startling figures appear in the accident bulletin just issued by the interstate commerce commission covering the months of July, August and September, 1907. The report shows that the number of casualties on railroads during that quarterly period were 23,063, including 1,339 killed and 21,724 injured. This is an increase of 167 in the number killed and 3,056 in the number injured as compared with the corresponding period of 1906. Collisions and derailments in the quarter numbered 4,279, including 2,245 collisions and 2,034 derailments, of which 320 collisions and 222 derailments affected passenger trains. The damage to cars, engines and roadway by these accidents amounted to $3,695,696. This shows an increase in the number of collisions and derailments of 607 over the corresponding period of 1906.

His Remedy.
The lecturer on health had finished his discourse and invited his auditors to ask any questions they chose concerning points that might seem to need clearing up, when a lean, skinny man rose up and asked: "Professor, what do you do when you can't sleep at night?"
"I usually stay awake," replied the lecturer, "although, of course, every one should feel at liberty to do otherwise if he chooses. Are there any other questions?"—Puck.

JOHN MITCHELL REFUSES GIFT

$2,700 Presented Him by Miners of Wyoming and Montana.

Their President Makes Most Eloquent Speech of His Life in Appreciation of Their Confidence.

STURDY MINERS AFFECTED

Indianapolis, Jan. 22.—Perhaps the most eloquent speech President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, ever made in his life was when he declined to accept the personal gift of $2,700, tendered him by the miners of Montana and Wyoming, as a token of their appreciation of Mitchell's efforts to make their conditions better. As he spoke, trying to check his emotion, tears came to his eyes.

"Give it to Mrs. Mitchell and the children," he said, trembling with emotion. Big hardy miners shed tears with him.

Thomas Gibson, president of the Montana miners, had come to the platform carrying a draft for $2,300. He said the draft was backed by a smaller amount which would bring the amount up to $2,755.

"We do not come with a loving cup," he said, "but we feel it our duty to give some testimony of our appreciation of what Mitchell has done for us."

Then President Mitchell arose. As he spoke he seemed ready to break down.

"Gentlemen of the convention," he said, "and particularly the miners of Montana and Wyoming, I cannot explain to you how I appreciate this expression of good will and confidence in me. I don't know what to do—I don't want the money. If I could ask you to take it back and give it to the men who sent it here and feel sure they would know I appreciate their confidence as much as though they had given me as many millions as they have hands, I would feel better about it."

"I prefer that you take the money back, but if you cannot do that without danger of giving offense to the good people who sent it to me—then send it to Mrs. Mitchell and let her use it to educate our boys."

The draft will be sent to Mrs. Mitchell.

ACCOMMODATIONS

COSTS MONEY TO TELEPHONE COMPANIES IN CITIES.

Extra Operator Employed Just to Act as Alarm Clocks for Their Patrons.

If the action of the National Independent Telephone association's efforts to stop the request for telephone operators to call patrons early in the morning is successful it is almost certain that the alarm clock manufacturers will have an unprecedented business. The association is in session today and tomorrow in Chicago, and Mr. H. J. Jeffery, manager of the Home Telephone company, is sergeant at arms for the association. Mr. Jeffery was unable to attend the meeting owing to business obligations.

This accommodation of the telephone companies to their patrons means the expense of another operator, and frequently the patrons' requests do not cease at merely being called. The East Tennessee Telephone company has ceased calling patrons, but the Home Telephone company has continued, and probably will continue to do so, no matter what action the association may take to stop the nuisance, as they term it. The regular meeting of the association is held in June, but owing to the electrical show being on in Chicago the officers decided to hold the convention in conjunction with the show, which is related closely to the telephone business.

PROHIBITIONISTS ARE DENOUNCED

Man May Be Good Christian and Handle or Drink Liquor—Church on Prohibition.

DECLARES THE REV. WASSON.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 22.—At the afternoon session of the Model License convention the Rev. William J. Wasson, of Riverhead, L. I., delivered an address in which he declared it is high time for the church people who are not extremists to take a hand and settle the liquor question on a rational basis. He said he believed this to be a step in the right direction, and he hoped the ministers of the gospel of all denominations would be wise enough and foresighted enough to see the question in the same light.

"The church can no longer afford to have its name exploited in the manner in which it is being used by the prohibitionists are puritanical and in the prohibitionist sentiment that a man cannot be a good Christian and handle or drink liquor. The church and the prohibitionists are as far apart as the poles."

Dr. Wasson said the question of drinking in moderation as one of individual conscience. He declared the prohibitionists the puritanical and that a puritan is "a manufacturer and wholesale dealer in artificial sin."

"The prohibitionist believes in a fetch of law," said Rev. Wasson, "if there is anything wrong anywhere, all that is needed, according to his belief, is a law against it. Intemperance can never be removed by the policeman's club, or the sheriff's warrant. I am opposed to the whole prohibition philosophy, because I think it is an outrageous infringement of human rights."

"Hous church people have ostracized the saloonkeeper, laid all sins at his door and have warned the people away from him as from the mouth of hell. In the face of all this they come along with the hypocritical rant that the atmosphere of the saloon is bad. What, I ask you, have the church people done to better the conditions of the saloon?"

"The real question before the American people today is: 'What kind of a saloon shall we have?' Shall we have the open legitimate saloon, or the underground dives and dens?"

"I believe the church and the liquor trade should stand shoulder to shoulder in this great fight. We need each other. There must be co-operation, without interference with the liberties and rights of the American citizen."

Frank H. Ferris, state senator from Missouri, spoke after Rev. Wasson. He said he is not a manufacturer or dealer and therefore should properly come in the category "as a consumer." He said he is opposed constitutionally to prohibition because it is a deprivation of rights. He declared that prohibition is a sham and the only way prohibition could ever be put into effect would be by the government of the United States.

DR. PURSLEY EXPLAINS REASON

For Selling $1.00 Bottles of His Great Remedy in Paducah 30 Days for 35c a Bottle.

When interviewed on the subject by a Sun reporter, Dr. Pursley said: "My reason for advertising and selling a $1.00 bottle of Pursley's Vegetable Compound in Paducah for 35c is simply to show the people the great merit there is in the medicine; and by selling a $1.00 bottle for 35c the poor people are given a chance to try my remedy as well as the rich. Another reason: I want to give the money it takes to advertise the medicine to the people instead of giving it to wealthy advertising bureaus that don't need it. Another reason is to prove to the people just what Pursley's Vegetable Compound will do. We don't think it cures Kidney Troubles; we know it. We don't think it cures Stomach Troubles; we know it. We don't think it cures Rheumatism and Blood Diseases; we know it cures them."

"We have a remedy we are proud of and we want the people to be just as proud of it as we are. When I leave a city or town I leave walking and talking advertisements instead of worthless testimonials of people you never knew nor heard of. I want every sufferer with Rheumatism, Stomach Troubles, Kidney, Liver, Blood or Nerve Diseases to try this medicine, a $1.00 bottle for 35c. You will never live to see it sold in Paducah again for less than $1.00 a bottle and after you try it you will be glad to pay $1.00 for it."

Everybody is invited to call at once at McPherson's drug store, Fourth and Broadway, and try the remedy.

IN METROPOLIS

Another Rape Case.

Miss Maud Stoner, age 15, swore out a warrant before the grand jury last week against Lester Daly and Terry Kennedy charging them with rape, she being under 16 years of age, the age limit in the state of Illinois. She was with a child and intended only to swear out a warrant against Lester Daly for bastardy, but the facts in the case were brought out and as the law of the state of Illinois makes it rape with permission or without permission, they were both charged with rape instead of bastardy. From reports Lester Daly and Miss Stoner got one night about six months ago and that he wanted to protect himself against bastardy and had Terry Kennedy to catch him with her. They both then had intercourse with her and both are now in trouble. Terry Kennedy is now under arrest at Jennings, La.

CONJECTURES

As to Purpose of Tobacco Meeting at Memphis.
Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 22.—Plans for a campaign of retaliation against the night riders of Kentucky and Tennessee, it is claimed, are being formulated in Memphis at a conference called by Percival S. Hill, of New York, a high official of the American Tobacco company, who arrived Sunday night, and immediately made the wires hot with messages summoning representatives of the trust to meet him in Memphis.

The visit of Mr. Hill to Memphis has been guarded with the utmost care. At the office of the Tom Morton Tobacco company, the Memphis branch of the trust, it was asserted that Mr. Hill was not in the city, while at interested banks the same assertion was made. The fact remains, however, that Mr. Hill did come to Memphis Sunday and was assigned to room 305 at the Gayoso, where he still is. Repeated efforts to see him were unsuccessful, and the room was evidently vacant most of the day.

Monday night and Tuesday morning a number of prominent Kentucky and Tennessee tobacco men reached the city, and the rumor was that they were the ones to whom Mr. Hill had sent the messages for a conference.

The impression prevailed that the principal topic of discussion was the boldness of night riders, and the wholesale destruction of tobacco crops. It was said that on account of the present inflated condition of affairs in Kentucky it was deemed advisable to hold a conference in Memphis, where no suspicion of any intended retaliatory action upon the part of the trust would be aroused.

None of these stories could be confirmed on account of an inability to secure interviews with those most interested, and they may be without foundation. But the mere fact that the president of the American Tobacco company would journey all the way to Memphis to hold a conference with men in adjoining territory, was considered ample ground for believing that the incentive was materially strong.

A BLENDING TO MANY PEOPLE

May Mean Much Less Sickness
Here When This Prescription is Known by People in Paducah.

A HOME MADE REMEDY.

This is a simple home recipe now being made known in all the larger cities through the newspapers. It is intended to check the many cases of rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble which have made so many cripples and invalids and weaklings of some of our brightest and strongest people.

The druggists here have been notified to supply themselves with the ingredients, and the sufferer will have no trouble to obtain them. The prescription is as follows: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kagon, one ounce; Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking well in a bottle. The dose is one teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

Recent experiments, even in severe hospital cases, prove this simple mixture the remedy for rheumatism, because of its positive action upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys. It compels these most vital organs to filter from the blood and secrete the waste impurities and uric acid which are the cause of rheumatism.

It cleanses the kidneys, strengthens them and removes quickly such symptoms as backache, blood disorders, bladder weakness, frequent urination, painful urination and discolored urine. It acts as a powerful stimulant to the entire kidney and bladder structure, puts new life into them and invigorates the entire tract.

All the ingredients, states a well-known local druggist, are of vegetable extraction, making it a safe and harmless prescription at any time.

Those who suffer and are accustomed to purchase a bottle of patent medicine should put let a little inconvenience interfere with making this up.

DEFECTIVE FLUE

CAUSES BAD FIRE IN OLD L. C. FREIGHT DEPOT.

Association Tobacco in Prizing House Threatened That Was Saved By Firemen.

Fire, which started from a defective flue in the old freight depot at Eleventh street and Broadway early last night, damaged the building about $500 and for a while $25,000 worth of association tobacco in the prizing house of Graham & Veal, in the rear of the depot building, was in danger of destruction, but was saved by the prompt work of the firemen.

The fire started in the second story of the old building in the room formerly occupied by the dispatcher's office, but at present is occupied by one Haller. The room underneath, which is occupied by the yard clerks, sustained the heaviest damages, the books and records that were out of the safe being soaked with water.

When the employees of the Graham & Veal association prizing house opened the place this morning it was found that neither fire nor water had reached the stock stored in the warehouse, and no damage whatever was sustained. The tobacco in the house is fully protected with insurance.

MOVING PICTURE SHOWS.

This Class of Entertainments is Now on the Increase.

"The moving picture show business, instead of dying out, is becoming greater every day and will soon be recognized as one of the leading amusement institutions of the country," remarked J. W. Santee, who has a string of electric theaters in Illinois, according to the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune. "The business in this country is only a few years old, but it is figured that the thousands of moving picture theaters in every state in the nation receive over 1,500,000 paid admissions every day. The cheap amusement offered attracts the people fully as much as the novelty. Besides the numerous picture shows, every vaudeville theater in the country has a moving picture exhibition at every performance."

ADMINISTRATION'S FOREIGN POLICY

the moral support in the war, without which there might have been a different conclusion, and had England been actively allied with Russia to preserve the Caucasian supremacy over the Mongolian, Japan today would be off of the political horizon. At any rate, the result of the war was to put eastern peoples on the same footing politically as western peoples, and it is due to this sudden elevation of the former that the latter is so sharply sitting up and looking around. The United States can no longer notify Japan what would be acceptable in the way of immigration, but must negotiate a treaty and give valid reasons why such and such is demanded. Owing to this powerful new eastern neighbor, President Roosevelt was prompt to declare that the Pacific is just as much our coast line as the Atlantic and must be guarded as much or more so than the latter.

Balance of Power.

One cause of night-mares to European diplomats is passing away under the new adjustment. They have worked for centuries trying to maintain "the balance of power" in Europe, which then also meant the balance of power in Asia, but with the prospect of a dismemberment of China eliminated, the balance of power will consist not in keeping any one European nation from getting top-heavy in European politics, but in keeping non-European races from becoming the dominating factor in world politics. Europe and America now lose sight of their smaller quarrels in the face of larger world questions. By our geographical position we are destined to play a leading part in world politics and the people are beginning to realize it. America acts as a break-water for eastern questions and dangers for Europe and certain European powers show a disposition to let us take a leading part in solving the situation. Fortunately for the Americas, England is facing the same questions in Canada that we face and must be therefore our natural ally, though that England should ever join the east against the west, where the supremacy of Caucasians is really at stake, is not possible.

Jingoism is increasing both in the east and in America and Europe as these facts are being fully appreciated. Europe and America are talking war and Japan through its jingoists show irritation at these manifestations of suspicion. A cruise of our fleet to the Pacific consequently is seized by the excitable elements of the population as an evidence that the government is more concerned than it allows. Still the government in Japan has the situation in hand and the same is true in the United States, so that jingoism is considerably more bark than bite. President Roosevelt will allow the jingoists to run unrebuked until the nation sees the necessity of his naval program and makes adequate preparation for the possibilities in the situation. If there was any real danger from nothing causing unnecessary trouble, the common sense of the people would stop it. With almost complete unanimity the nation is lining up with the administration on its foreign policy, which is another evidence that the party will be overwhelmingly successful next November.

The analogy between the rise of Greece and western peoples, and the rise of Japan and eastern peoples is the most striking proof that history repeats itself. Greece was a new, untitled nation in the face of Persian world-supremacy, but the battle of Marathon marked the entrance of a new life into the world and a life that had more virility than the old. Port Arthur did the same for Japan and the east against the Caucasian supremacy, that Marathon did for Greece against Asiatic supremacy. It is more than inevitable that just as Persia essayed again in the battle of Salamis to regain her prestige, that Europe through Russia will not look upon Mukden as final, but will meet Asia again in deadly struggle. If such will be the course of history, the struggle will be as much more frightful than its prototype 2,300 years ago as the advances in intelligence since then can make it. There will be this difference, however, if the east does maintain its sovereignty the west will not sink into the decay that Persia and Asia Minor experienced following the rise of Greece. Our institutions are more virile and will not be overthrown because the east advances something better, but because it will beat us at our own game. Yet the absurdity of contending with the natural development of Mongolian nationalities, even if that does involve the introduction of mighty world forces, will become apparent and mankind will realize, probably under the leadership of the United States, that a policy of good will rather than of racial antagonism is the sensible solution, though take some fighting to teach it.

Daily Thought.

There is some virtue in almost every vice except hypocrisy.—Hazlitt.

That warm bath in the county jail will do more to keep some people good than a stone pile would.

Kansas legislators reject the woman's suffrage measure because there is no emergency. If there are any more out there like Carrie Nation, the women are quite capable of creating an emergency whenever they get ready.

Many a man has asked the jury to have more consideration for his wife and children than he has ever shown.

If you tore down your sign when the board of public works said it had authority to make you, you can put it back again, because the board has changed its mind, and now officially thinks hasn't the right.

We join the board of public works in demanding screened gravel for streets. The board thinks "a good quality of gravel" is too vague. We think it is too plastic.

Bryan, who says there are only

Democrats, who trust the people, and Aristocrats, who do not trust the people, as usual sees only one side of it, and fails to distinguish the Democrats, whom the people do not trust.

A public wharf from Kentucky avenue to Monroe street, sidewalk down Broadway and Kentucky avenue to the river front, sidewalks on First street and a park on the river front, are mighty good recommendations.

The more boats come to Paducah and the cheaper the freight, the better for the city; and the better and cheaper facilities we afford boats for landing and transacting business, the more freight they will bring here. The more we improve the water front and the vicinity of the wharf, the better impression Paducah will make on people traveling the rivers. There is no disguising the fact that Paducah has a much run-down appearance on the river side, and she is a river town superintendent, the county judge and the county attorney must meet soon after the enactment of the law, and divide the county into four, six or eight school divisions, which in turn are to be divided into subdistricts, with a school building in each one.

On the first Saturday in August between 1 and 5 o'clock, every citizen of the sub-district, over 21 years old, and having been a resident of the sub-district 60 days, may meet at the school house and elect a trustee, whose qualifications are those of the voters. Voting is to be by ballot, and no party emblems are to be allowed on the ballot, the names of candidates being supplied by petitions.

The county school superintendent is then to organize each division board, composed of trustees from the sub-districts of the division; and the division presidents are to be members of the county board. The county board is to have full charge of the high school and to recommend a tax levy, not to exceed 20 cents on the $100 to the fiscal court.

The division trustees are to elect teachers for the division, and each trustee is to take the census of his own sub-district and report on its condition to his division board.

This law, with the change in the method of purchasing school books, should do much to lift the common school system of Kentucky out of the rut.

Beginning our annual January clearance sale of coal. Odd sizes. Everything must go.

Look out for an ice famine in July.

We allow this: there is no harm in any city department asking for enough. How much they will get is another matter.

Shouldn't be surprised if that fresh salt air feels good to some of the officers of the fleet.

SCHOOL NOTES

During the next semester it is the plan of Prof. W. H. Sugg, principal of the High school, to have a series of short addresses at the opening exercises of the school by the business men of the city. It is intended that these talks shall be practical, and by getting representative men of varied industries, the talks will be interesting as well as profitable to the students. It is known that a number of business men will consent to address the High school, and Professor Sugg will arrange a program to extend as far through the semester as possible.

The representative of the High school to compete in the oratorical contest with other High schools in the western part of the state will be selected by the debating society before Friday. The boys of the High school are confident of carrying off the honor. None of the High schools that will send representatives has a public speaking department in the course of study, more than the voluntary societies organized by the students, and this will put the representatives in the debate on a level.

The Rev. G. T. Sullivan, pastor of the Broadway Methodist church, addressed the students of the High school on "The Scholar, Who is Four-Square." Dr. Sullivan brought out the four points of common sense, perseverance, application and character, splendidly. Dr. Sullivan is a pleasing speaker, and his talk at opening exercise to the students was appreciated.

Miss Emma Mayer, teacher at the McKinley building, resumed her position in the schools this morning.

Beginning next semester the High school will have two senior classes for the first time in its history. When Prof. C. M. Lieb was superintendent of the schools four years ago he inaugurated the promotion of classes every half year. The first midyear commencement will be held next February, and then regularly every June and February.

At present fourteen are enrolled in the first midyear class, and of this number six are boys. In the class that will finish next June, there are twelve members, of which three are boys. From the eighth grade about 10 recruits will be added to the present freshman class at the High school after the examinations next week.

The Influenza Germ.

The fact of influenza having made its appearance among us again tends to revive interest in the microbe that is responsible for this exceedingly distressing complaint.

A few years back our knowledge of the organism was almost nil. But the ravages of the disease put the bacteriologists on their mettle, with the result that today they know more about its habits and life history than is the case with almost any other pathogenic germ.

In appearance the influenza microbe very much resembles a sheep tick, only, of course, he is many thousand times smaller. His goal in life is the human throat or nose. As soon as he settles there he proceeds first to swell, then to elongate, and in a very few minutes he separates into two parts.

Each of these parts resolves itself almost instantaneously into a perfect microbe, and these two fully fledged microbes start at once to swell and divide on their own account. In this way in the course of twenty-four hours the original microbe will have surrounded himself with some 16,000,000 other microbes—his children, so to speak.—Atlanta Journal.

It was when she heard the night shift at their meet that she threw a shawl about her head, stepped into the cool night and poked her way down toward the roar of the creek. "A breath of air and then to bed," she thought. She saw the tall figure of the watchman and made for him. He seemed oddly interested in her approach, watching her very closely, almost as though alarmed. It was doubtless because there were so few women out here, or possibly on account of the lateness of the hour. Away with conventions! This was the land of instinct and impulse. She would talk to him. The man drew his hat more closely about his face and moved off as she came up. Heister had been in her thoughts a moment since, and she now noted that there was another with the same great, square shoulders and erect head. Then she saw with a start that this one was a negro. He carried a Winchester and seemed to watch her carefully, yet with indifference.

To express her interest and to break the silence, she questioned him, but at the sound of her voice he stepped toward her and spoke roughly: "What?"

Then he paused and stammered in a strangely altered and unnatural voice: "Yess'm, I'm the watchman."

She noted two other darkies at work below and was vaguely surprised, not so much at their presence, as at the manner in which they moved, for they seemed under stress of some great haste, running hither and yon. She saw horses standing in the trail and sensed something definitely odd and alarming in the air. Turning to the man she opened her mouth to speak when from the rank grass under her feet came a noise which set her a-tremble and at which her suspicions leaped full to the solution. It was the groan of a man. Again he gave voice to his pain, and she knew that she stood face to face with something sinister. Takes of silence robbers had come to her and rumors of the daring raids into which they were bred by the yellow sheen, and yet this was incredible. A hundred men lay within sound of her voice. She could hear their laughter. One was whistling a popular refrain. A quarrel raged on every hand. There were other camps. A scream from her would bring them all. Nonsense, this was no silence robbery; and then the man in the bushes below moaned for the third time.

"What is that?" she said.

Without reply the negro lowered the muzzle of his rifle till it covered her breast, and at the same time she heard the double click of the hammer.

"Keep still and don't move," he warned. "We're desperate, and we can't take any chances, miss."

"Oh, you are stealing the gold?"

She was wildly frightened, yet stood still while the look-out anxiously divided his attention between her and the tents above until his companions signified him that they were through and the horses were loaded. Then he spoke:

"I don't know what to do with you, but I guess I'll tie you up."

"What?" she said.

"I'm going to tie and gag you so you can't holler."

"Oh, don't you dare!" she cried fiercely. "I'll stand right here till you've gone, and I won't scream. I promise."

She looked up at him appealingly, at which he dipped his head, so that she caught only a glimpse of his face, and then backed away.

"All right! Don't try it because I'll be hidden in those bushes yonder at for the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed, as given by leaders in all the several schools of medicine, should have far more weight than any amount of non-professional testimonials. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has the badge of honesty on every bottle-wrapper, in a full list of all its ingredients printed in plain English.

If you are an invalid woman and suffer from frequent headache, backache, gnawing distress in stomach, periodical pains, disagreeable, catarrhal, pelvic drain, dragging down distress in lower abdomen or pelvis, perhaps dark spots or specks dancing before the eyes, faint spells and kindred symptoms caused by female weakness, or the derangement of the feminine organs, you can not do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The hospital, surgeon's knife and operating table may be avoided by the timely use of "Favorite Prescription" in such cases. Thereby the obvious examinations and treatments of the family physician can be avoided and a thorough course of successful treatment carried out in the privacy of the home. Favorite Prescription is composed of the very best native medicinal roots known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments, contains no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs.

Do not expect too much from "Favorite Prescription." It will not perform miracles; it will not dissolve or cure tumors. No medicine will. It will do as much to establish vigorous health in most weaknesses and ailments peculiarly incident to women as any medicine can. It must be given a fair chance to prove its value in its use for a reasonable length of time.

You can't afford to accept a secret remedy as a substitute for this remedy of known value.

the bond, and I'll keep you covered till the others are gone." He leaped down the bank, ran to the cavalcade, mounted quickly, and the three lashed their horses into a run, disappearing up the trail around the sharp curve. She heard the blows of their quirts as they whipped the pack horses.

They were long out of sight before the girl moved a muscle, although she knew that none of the three had paused at the bend. She only stood and gazed, for as they galloped off she had heard the scrap of a broken sentence. It was but one excited word sounding through the rattle of hoofs—her own name—"Helen!" and yet because of it she did not voice the alarm, but rather began to piece together bit by bit the strange points of this adventure. She recalled the outlines of her captor with a wrinkle of perplexity. Her fright disappeared entirely, giving place to intense excitement. "No, no; it can't be! And yet I wonder if it is!" she cried. "Oh, I wonder if it could be!"

She opened her lips to cry aloud, then hesitated. She started toward the tents, then paused, and for many moments after the hoof beats had died out she stared undecided. Surely she wished to give the signal, to force the fierce pursuit. What meant this robbery, this defiance of the law, of her people's solemn laws? They were common thieves, criminals, outlaws, these men, deserving punishment, and yet she recalled a darker night, when she herself had soiled and quivered with the terrors of pursuit and two men had shielded her with their bodies.

She turned and sped toward the tents, bursting in through the canvas door. Instantly every man rose to his feet at sight of her pallid face, her flashing eyes and ruffled hair. "Sluice robbers!" she cried breathlessly. "Quick! A holdup! The watchman is hurt!"

A roar shook the night air, and the men poured out past her, while the day shift came tumbling forth from every quarter in various stages of undress.

"Where? Who did it? Where did they go?"

McNamara appeared among them, fierce and commanding, seeming to

WIFE PUT UNDER BOND TO KEEP GOOD COMPANY.

Family Row Settled by Judge Cross in the Police Court This Morning.

In police court J. Holter was dismissed this morning on a warrant charging him with breach of peace. It was alleged by Bolton's wife that he whipped her yesterday morning. The evidence brought out, was that the couple had separated and Mrs. Bolton had resided with undesirable people, and had taken her three-year-old girl to the place. Judge Cross gave Mrs. Bolton a sound lecture on her conduct, and put her under a $300 bond that she would keep away from her former associates. The woman is from a good family in the county, and she promised to go and remain at home. Judge Cross told Bolton a few things, and said they must keep apart. The warrant against Bolton was dismissed.

Sam Herbst was arrested last night by Patrolmen Carter and Hession for carrying a concealed weapon, and fined $25 and costs and ten days in jail. Herbst prayed for an appeal and it was granted him.

Other cases on the docket were: Flourishing pistol—Pete Harrison, colored, continued until Friday; maintaining a nuisance—Gardner Gilbert and Herbert Torrence, continued to Saturday; breach of peace—Will Taylor, continued until Saturday; petty larceny—Harry Bedford, held

CITY LICENSE DUE

FOR ALL KINDS OF BUSINESS, OCCUPATIONS AND PROFESSIONS ARE NOW DUE.

All city licenses are due in January. This notice is published to guard you against forgetfulness and thus save you additional cost of 10 per cent penalty.

Every business, occupation and profession is liable for city license. If not paid on or before February 1st 10 per cent must be added.

Kindly call at the treasurer's office soon as possible and avoid the penalty and also the throng of the last days, and greatly oblige.

Yours respectfully,
JOHN J. DORIAN,
City Treasurer.

Cargoes of Peanuts.
It is shipping time for peanuts, and the packets plying in the upper Tennessee river trade are loaded to the water line with the goobers almost every trip. The Clyde arrived last night from the Tennessee river but her cargo of peanuts was discharged at Johnsonville and Danville, Tenn., where they were shipped to cleaning houses in St. Louis and Nashville. Since the Southern Peanut company, of this city, went into bankruptcy few sacks of the goobers have been received here, and trades is missed at the wharf, since Paducah was the headquarters of the trade, and ranked as one of the peanut centers of the world. The peanuts of the upper Tennessee river are of high quality, and there is a great demand for them. Last summer's crop was a good one, and the shipping of the goobers has just started in full blast.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

Nichoff-Arts.
The marriage of Mr. Albert Nichoff, of this city, to Miss Margaret Nichoff, of Adrian, was solemnized this morning at 9 o'clock at the St. John's church. The Rev. Father Reinhardt performed the ceremony. Mr. Frank Nichoff and Mr. Henry Arts, brothers of the bride and bridegroom, were the only attendants. The bride looked most attractive in a pretty gown of white Liberty satin elaborately trimmed with lace and medallions. She wore the bridal veil and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses.
A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Nichoff, after the ceremony. A number of friends of the popular young couple were present. It was a pleasant occasion.
Mr. and Mrs. Arts will live in Paducah, keeping house at their new home at Twentieth and Clark streets.

Magazine Club.
The Magazine club will meet Thursday afternoon with Miss Frances Gould at her home, "The Ferns," on Clark street. The North American Review will be reported by Mrs. George C. Wallace and Miss Anna Webb; the Outlook by Mrs. Mildred Davis and Miss Gould; Century by Mrs. A. S. Dabney; Current Literature by Miss Alice Isabelle Compton.

Card Party for Visitor.
Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Ragan, 1327 Trimble street, entertained very delightfully at cards last evening at their home in honor of Miss Dorothy Schröder, of Mt. Vernon, Ind., the guest of Mrs. P. J. Heckenbach and Miss Etta Heckenbach. A number of guests enjoyed the occasion.

Dance at Hotel Craig.
The guests of Hotel Craig will have a dance this evening in the dining hall of the hotel. These are pleasant occasions given throughout the winter.

Annual Ball.
The Tinners and Pipefitters' union gave their second annual ball last night at the Red Men's hall, on North Fourth street. A large crowd was present.

Marriage of Miss Kettler and Mr. Pool Announced.

Mrs. Tobias Kettler announces the approaching marriage of her daughter, Miss Lillie Rebecca Kettler, to Mr. Stephen P. Pool. The marriage will take place on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the family residence, 321 South Third street. The Rev. William Grother, of the Lutheran church, will perform the ceremony. The wedding will be a quiet affair with only the immediate relatives present. The bride will wear a coat suit of brown velvet with hat, gloves and shoes to harmonize. The couple will leave at 11:20 o'clock for a bridal trip north and will be at home after two weeks, at 321 South Third street. Miss Kettler is a handsome young woman of attractive personality and has a large number of friends in Paducah. Mr. Pool is proprietor of the Paducah Undertaking company and is an affable young man who stands well in the community.

Wedding This Morning.
This morning at 9:30 o'clock Miss Carrie Dumeau, of Calvert City, and Mr. J. M. Green, of this city, were married at the residence of the Rev. L. G. Graham, on Tennessee street by Dr. Graham. The bride is an attractive young woman of Calvert City, and has many friends in her home town. Mr. Green is a well known employee of the car department of the Illinois Central railroad, and is popular with his associates. Mr. and William Stice, of Calvert City, were the only attendants of the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Green went to Calvert City today for a short visit to friends, and on their return will be at home at 1022 Tennessee street.

The German club will entertain with a dance on Monday evening at the Craig Hotel. The list will go on Friday at noon at J. L. Culley's store.

Attractive Concert for Lovable Object Tonight.
The concert to be given under the auspices of the Alumni Association, will take place tonight at the High school auditorium of the Washington building. The program is an especially delightful one, and the promise is for a crowded house. The Alumni is endeavoring to secure a fund to put manual instruction in the schools with the new term beginning in February, and the concert is for the benefit of this. That the idea has public sympathy the cordial response that the Alumni has met with in presenting this concert, is a fine indication.

SORE ON AMERICA.

Canadian Postmaster Reports on His Visit to Japan.

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 22.—Postmaster-General Lemieux, in the house today, made a report on his recent mission to Tokyo. Mr. Lemieux declared that, as a result of his negotiations with the mikado's government, an effective check had been put on the emigration of western nations and not only Canada, but the United States, is that America admits immigrants from Europe, but shuts the door upon Japanese.

This, they say, is flagrant contravention of the treaty in which they are guaranteed equal treatment with that accorded subjects of all other countries. They regard it as an aspersion on their nationality, and will not be satisfied until the discriminating treatment is abolished.

NEWS OF COURTS

In Circuit Court.
The suit of Austin C. Morrison against the Columbia Manufacturing company for $10,500 damages is on trial in the circuit court this afternoon. Morrison was a night watchman at the plant in Mechanicsburg and fell into a barrel of hot water and was horribly scalded. After hearing a part of the evidence Judge Rice passed the case until an absent witness could be subpoenaed, and took up the suit of J. S. Downs against S. M. Stallings, in which a horse trade is involved. Neither case was finished at 3 o'clock.

The case of C. E. Wiggins against the C. & O. Railroad company for $190 damages to household goods, shipped from Paducah to Richmond, Va., was continued until the next term of court.

The report of the commissioner's sale in the case of A. L. Livingston & company against J. M. Perkins was confirmed.

Judge E. W. Hagby, referee in bankruptcy, has announced that a 10 per cent dividend, payable January 21, has been declared for the benefit of the creditors of the Scott Hardware company. The notice is given in advance that any creditor of the estate objecting to the dividend may be heard.

PRIMARY BILL

IS DOOMED IN ILLINOIS LEGISLATURE IT SEEMS.

Appropriate $10,000 to Ascertain the Possibility of Improving River Navigation.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 22.—The 1908 primary election bill, decided upon by the new conference committee, is probably doomed to defeat. The house Democrats and Governor Deen are against it.

The senate passed the bill appropriating $10,000 for the Illinois' international improvement commission in their work of ascertaining the possibility of making the Mississippi more navigable from St. Louis to Cairo.

The house passed the bill authorizing the state treasurer to loan the state money to banks.

RAILROAD NOTES

Cyclone fans, which are to be attached to the shoving conveyors in the big mill at the shops, are being placed in position and it is expected will be in operation by the first of next week. When completed the fans will furnish suction sufficient to carry blocks weighing several pounds from the mills to the boiler rooms, where the refuse is used for fuel.

Frank Barger and E. Moore, the two switchmen who were asleep in the room where the fire started in the old freight depot last night, were not awakened until the fire destroyed their overcoats and other articles of clothing.

Marvin Boren, the switchman who was caught between two cars on the curve at the vinegar factory yesterday and bruised about the chest, is feeling well at the hospital and will be able to be out in a week or two. The Cairo papers say that Boren formerly lived there and was tried and acquitted last summer on a charge of murdering Policeman Patrick Dowd.

The rumor, current for several days, that this will be the last five-day working week for the employees of the shops seems to be generally accepted as being correct and is borne out by the evident accumulation of heavy work in all departments. In fact there are many employees who would not be greatly surprised to learn that the shops will run full time this Saturday though there is room for doubt on that score.

TIME OF SUPERVISORS EXTENDED BY THE JUDGE.

The session of the board of tax supervisors for the county has been extended 10 days by order of Judge Lightfoot, the chairman of the board having reported that the assessments in three districts had not yet been revised. The supervisors have finished with the First, Second, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth districts and are at present working on the assessment of the Fifth district, leaving the Third and Fourth yet untouched.

SAW HIDING PLACE IN DREAM.

New Jersey Woman Benefits By Visit of Spirk.

New York, Jan. 22.—In a dream Miss Lucy Alvord's grandfather, who has been dead seventy years, appeared to her in her home in Taylorville, N. J., and pointed out to her the hiding place of $4,000 in gold which he had put away before he died. The next morning the gold was discovered. The Alvord family has lived in the same house since Revolutionary days, and her grandfather goes into an old brick oven, long unused, and take from the wall a jar containing gold coins. The next day she induced her brother to investigate, and there, bricked up in the oven, was the jar containing the coins, the face value of which is about $4,000.

PUBLIC WORKS

BOARD RESIGNS AFTER ADOPTING AND PRESENTING ANNUAL REPORT.

Butchers Allowed to Put Down Foot Racks—Street Signs Are Not Discriminated Against.

After transacting routine business and adopting the annual report, the board of public works last evening tendered the resignation of all the members, Dr. J. Q. Taylor, George Langstaff and James Wilhelm, to Mayor Smith in the following language:

"As some speculation exists as to the tenure of office of the members of this board and the records showing the term to end in March, although the ordinance became effective in January, 1904, our experience convinces us that February 1 would be the best date for the terms to end. That date enables the old members to close the year's business and to offer such recommendation for the new year as they may deem proper, but above all, it leaves the incoming mayor free to appoint such men as he may desire to appoint to aid him in his administration of the city's affairs. Therefore, we respectfully tender our resignations to become effective February 1, 1905."

The board several months ago ordered down all sounding and swinging street signs, except electrical signs, and had the latter inspected, charging the owners for the inspection. The board now finds it cannot collect for the electrical sign, and rescinds its prohibition against other kinds.

Had sidewalks on Madison street between Ninth and Tenth streets, at Tenth and Monroe streets, Eleventh street and Broadway and Eleventh and Jefferson streets, were ordered repaired.

Butchers are allowed to put racks in the market to stand on.

Petition for electric lamps at Twenty-fifth and Jefferson streets of Guthrie avenue and in Mechanicsburg were filed away, because the plant can't carry any more lights.

Market stalls were leased to Samuel Muller and R. C. Potter.

The board will inspect Nineteenth street from Guthrie avenue to Broadway Monday. It is finished by E. C. Terrell.

Robert Boswell, who sublet to E. C. Terrell the contract for improving Boyd street between Seventh and Eighth streets, asked that estimates be turned over to Mr. Terrell.

Sewer Inspector A. Frank's report was received and filed.

Street Inspector Elliott purchased 100 loads of gravel. It was raffled and he was ordered to buy no more.

A WOMAN'S BACK.

The Aches and Pains Will Disappear If the Advice of This Paducah Citizen Is Followed.

A woman's back has many aches and pains. Most times 'tis the kidney's fault. Backache is really kidney ache. That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it.

Many Paducah women know this. Read what one has to say about it: Mrs. R. R. Whitmer, of 820-South Sixth street, Paducah, Ky., says: "For years I have been a sufferer from backache and kidney trouble. At times my back has been so lame that I was unable to get around my house on account of the severe pain across the small of my back and left side. I doctored but received very little benefit until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured at DuBois Son & Co.'s drug store. I took them as directed and the results have been very satisfactory. I certainly believe that I would have been at least confined to my bed at this time had it not been for Doan's Kidney Pills."

"PEACEFUL ARMY"

ON TRIAL IN COURT AT MENFORDVILLE, KY.

Henry County Circuit Judge Delivers Strong Charge Against Night Riders to Jury.

Menfordsville, Ky., Jan. 22.—The case against the "peaceful army" was called in the circuit court before Judge Jones. In a few minutes all the regular panel except nine were disqualified on account of relationship to some of the defendants and because of having formed and expressed opinions on the merits of the case. A venire of one hundred jurymen were drawn from the wheel and placed in the hands of the sheriff and his deputies to summon.

Strong Charge to Jury

Emmence, Ky., Jan. 22.—The Henry circuit court convened this morning with Judge Marshall on the bench. This is the first time Judge Marshall has held court in Henry county since the appointment to the circuit judgeship. In his charge to the grand jury this morning Judge Marshall dwelt at length upon the offense of burning barns and the dangerous results. He said that there was no more outrageously or cowardly crime against the commonwealth than the unlawful binding and conspiring together of a set of men masked for the purpose of committing outrage against their neighbors by the burning of property and personal assaults against their owners. He also called the grand jury's attention to the sending of threatening letters and messages, and implored the jury to bring persons guilty of such practices before the court and he promised to see that justice was meted out.

The judge referred to the illegal practices of corporations consolidating into trusts for the purpose of raising prices, and told the jury that corporations guilty of such offenses should be indicted. He said, however, there was one pool now in existence that was excepted from the operation of the anti-trust laws, and that was the American Society of Equity. He said that such a combination among the farmers was not illegal and did not come within the meaning of the statute, but that such a pool was specifically permitted.

The case of the commonwealth against the American Tobacco company was called today and passed until Wednesday. Former Chief Justice William S. Pryor has been retained by the American Tobacco company to defend the case. The names of T. A. Edelin, of Frankfort, and Judge Walter Lincoln, of Louisville, have been suggested for special judge in the event Judge Marshall vacates the bench.

No Pouch for Soldiers.

Major General George M. Sternberg, was surveyor-general of the army during the war with Spain, and tells a story on ex-Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw. Shaw was governor of Iowa in 1895, and became excited over the prevalence of disease among the volunteers. He came on to see Gen. Sternberg, and told him the trouble was due to the kind of food furnished the troops by the government.

"It is your duty, general," he declared, "to provide ample supplies of peasin."

This was a new feature of army diet which had never been proposed. "Men who can't digest the army ration," said Gen. Sternberg, "have no right to wear the uniform. To have provided them with peasin," the general added, "would be to furnish them with a certificate showing they were members of the mollycoddle elite."—Washington Correspondent, Chicago Tribune.

MEASURE INTRODUCED IN SENATE BY SENATOR WATSON.

Provides for Popular Vote, Amending Constitution—New Liquor Law.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 22.—The measure about which so much has been said during the present session of the Legislature and which both the Democrats and the Republicans have been threatening to pass, finally was introduced in the senate this morning. The bill was offered by Senator M. G. Watson, who beat Senator Frank Rives to it by a few minutes.

The bill submits to the vote of the people the question of so amending the constitution as to allow the state to vote as a unit on the saloon business. Instead of the county as the unit this bill would provide for a vote in the entire state, the majority to control every county, even though a particular county, or several of them should vote the other way. The senate now has on tap a formidable array of liquor bills. One establishes the county as the unit, without excepting those which have cities of the first, second, third and fourth class within their boundaries. Another bill, which was introduced this morning in the same body, provides for an excise commission which will grant saloon licenses for the entire state. This commission is to draw salaries of $2,000 for each member and $1,200 for a secretary.

New Liquor Law.

A bill which is of great importance to the newspapers of the state, introduced by Senator J. W. Newman, provides that when a newspaper voluntarily prints a complete refutation of any alleged libelous matter the complainant cannot recover punitive damages for the original publication. Senator Newman also offered a bill appropriating $100,000 for the erection of buildings on the site of the state fair in Louisville. The bill appropriates $20,000 each year for five years, that amount to be expended for new buildings.

Another bill repealing the dog tax law, making almost an even dozen that have been offered, was introduced in the senate by Senator G. A. Taylor.

"AMAZING"

SAVS MR. WATSON OF MR. BRYAN'S MISSION.

In Coming to Kentucky He Is Making War on Forty Thousand Democrats.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Mr. Henry Watterson arrived here from New York. When asked what he thought of Mr. Bryan going to Kentucky to help Mr. Beckham he said:

"It is amazing to me that Mr. Bryan should come to Kentucky to make trouble. If Mr. Beckham is elected senator it will surely lose us the electoral vote of Kentucky in the presidential election. This loss of Kentucky may cost the party the chance of electing the next president. Mr. Bryan is an outside politician. In coming to Kentucky at this time he makes war on forty thousand Democrats who will never bend their necks to the Platt-Quay-Beckham machine as it has been carried on in Kentucky, nor will they yield to the yoke of Beckhamism."

Board of Public Works Recommends Many Improvements---Wants $54,000.

In its annual report the board of public works makes the following recommendations:

At the beginning of the year it was recommended that the sum of $40,000 be appropriated for streets, and $12,500 for the electric light plant—$10,000 for the operation and $2,500 for extension of the lighting system. The general council cut the amounts to $33,000 and $10,000 respectively. No provision for additional street lights being made, the operation of the plant was the only matter to consider in that department and that expense for the year was $9,659.27 leaving a surplus of but $340.73 to the credit of the plant at the close of the year. By referring to the report of the superintendent of the plant it will be observed that the operating cost per light was $36.25, as against $59.13 in the previous year.

The recommendations of the superintendent in his annual report, we believe, especially the one for a new boiler, which is not only needed if additional lights are to be installed, but necessary to the maintenance of the number now in use.

At the beginning of the year the board of public works determined that no deficit should ensue for 1907. In any of its departments, and when the appropriation for streets was cut from $40,000 to $33,000 the order went forth to continue the operations of the department to clean up the improved streets, keeping the sewers clear and to limit street repairs to dangerous places only, and by the observance of that close-fisted policy, until in November, a deficit was avoided, and the credit, to the street fund at the close of the year was $1,911.66 and that department is further entitled to credits of $1,020.91 for the sale of dirt, and $201.16 for work performed for other departments of the city.

The board is placed at one disadvantage by reason of the fact that out of the street fund must be paid the expenses of intersections of all new sidewalks and part of the new streets that may be ordered by the general council, and there is no way by which the board may know how much new work will be ordered by that body until late in the fall. In justice to all concerned the general council should designate before spring the amount it desires for new street work.

The Wharf.

Attention is called to the fact that the city is in need of more wharf room, and that conflicts for space now exist, which matters have been referred to the general council. We would recommend that the wharf be extended from Kentucky avenue to Washington street and that steps be taken to also extend it from Jefferson to Monroe streets. The river interests demand more room and it is essential to the welfare of the city that provisions to that end be made.

We would also recommend that the general council enact an ordinance keeping the foot of Washington street open for the landing of boats that have business with the marine ways, and to afford access to such boats with supplies while lying there undergoing repairs.

While on the subject of the wharf we would also recommend that sidewalks be provided on Broadway and Kentucky avenue from First street to Water street for the convenience and comfort of the public as well as improving the appearance of those two short squares. We would respectfully renew the recommendation of last year in regard to using the remainder of the street bond money to improve First street from Broadway to Jefferson street, Jefferson street from First to Second street and Second street from Jefferson to Monroe street. This improvement with a small park on First street will give Paducah a respectable river front.

The Market House.

The present market house is inadequate to the growing needs and convenience of the public at large, and the demands for space from garden truck growers is far beyond that afforded at present. To meet this condition we would recommend the establishment of two market houses in the western part of the city. They will yield a good revenue to the city, be a convenience to the people and lessen the monopoly that seems to exist about the present market house.

The Sewer Department.

The completion and acceptance of the sewers installed in district No. 2 imposes an additional expense on the street fund and naturally reduces the money available for street repairs. In the annual report preceding this, attention was called to the fact that the discharge of sewerage from district No. 2 into district No. 1, makes it imperative to enlarge the discharging capacity of the pumping station. Further neglect of this important matter is very apt to plague and damage the city during the approaching high water. To enlarge the area of the improvement and compel the property owners to pay the cost of same, and the city not make provisions for relieving the system at such times as indicated, will place the municipality in an awkward position, and where the recovery for damages sustained would, perhaps, prove greater than the cost of a larger pump at the pumping station. It was suggested in our last report to apportion that cost to the property in district No. 2, but it was not accepted and the expense will now have to be met from other sources.

Headache?

If it does, you should try Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. Why not do so. They will relieve the pain in just a few minutes. Ask your druggist. There are 45,000 druggists in the U. S. Ask any of them. A package of 25 doses costs 25 cents. One tablet usually stops a headache. They relieve pain without leaving any disagreeable after-effects— isn't that what you want?

"My son Frank Snyder has used Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for a long time. He never had anything to help him so much for headache. A year ago he came home, and I was down sick with such a dreadful nervous headache. He gave me one of the Anti-Pain Pills, and after while I took another and was entirely relieved. I always keep them in the house now, and gave many away to others suffering with headache."

Curb and Gutters.

In the matter of concrete sidewalks, curb and gutter, our experience moves us to the conclusion that the combined curb and gutter is a decided failure—it lacks strength and durability, and consequently in course of time, is the most expensive and unsatisfactory for the purposes intended, and we again recommend that granite be substituted for the curb, and gutter be vitrified brick laid on concrete foundation with a cement filler. Much of the work in the way of concrete sidewalks in the last year or two causes us to suggest that a revision of the proportion of the cement parts be made, or a better grade of material be used, and the character of workmanship be emphasized in all future ordinances.

Screened Gravel.

In ordering the improvements of streets with gravel, we would recommend that the general council provide that screened gravel only be used—a "good quality of gravel" is too vague.

Appropriations Recommended.

"With full knowledge of the lack of funds on the part of the city, yet in recommending appropriations for 1908, we make the figures, which in our opinion, the best interests of the city demand, and to enable this board to properly conduct the affairs entrusted to it with due regard to efficient economy and the welfare of the citizens. Those figures are $40,000 for streets and $11,000 for the electric light plant, covering the cost of a new boiler, extension of the light system and operating the plant.

Watched Fifteen Years.

"For fifteen years I have watched the working of Becklen's Arnica Salve; and it has never failed to cure any sore, boil, ulcer or burn to which it was applied. It has saved us many a doctor bill," says A. F. Hardy, of East Wilton, Maine. 25c at all druggists.

HARRIMAN FIGHTS; ODELL HIS AGENT

Hughes to Make War on Roosevelt and Taft.

Governor's Vote in Committee Traced Through Ex-Boss to President's Enemy.

HAND OF INTEREST IS SEEN

New York, Jan. 22.—One of the great "interests" of Wall street has begun actual warfare on President Roosevelt and Secretary Taft. It is none other than E. H. Harriman who is moving. He is at work for Governor Hughes and former governor and Boss Odell is his instrument. I am informed upon trustworthy authority that it was Harriman who ordered Odell to get into the fight for Hughes at the meeting of the New York county committee last week. This one of the "undesirable citizens" is trying to get even with the president who put the brand on him. There is no more adroit politician in the state of New York than Benjamin B. Odell, Jr. For a time he ruled the Republican party of the Empire state with an iron hand. E. H. Harriman was always back of him. Harriman and Odell are fast friends.

Already there was coolness between the president and Odell. The Harriman episode made it a frost. The president threw his great power against Odell. He was largely responsible for the downfall of the boss. Odell retired somewhat discredited, and Roosevelt became the real leader of the party in the state.

Hughes' friends were going to pass resolutions indorsing the governor for president, but they reckoned without their host. Odell was not yet ready to show his hand. The day before the committee meeting he had his private secretary telegraph orders to Abe Gruber to serve notice on the Hughes managers, amateurs, that if an indorsement resolution were presented his people would all vote against its adoption. Of course, the resolution was laid over to the January meeting.

Then something happened. E. H. Harriman was so eager to get in a crack at the president and at Secretary Taft that he could contain himself no longer. He telephoned peremptory orders to Odell at Newburg to line up his men for the Hughes resolution at the meeting of the county committee. Odell had no recourse but to obey the orders of his master, his chief almoner, the man who supplies the funds with which Odell maintains his hold on the city districts. Moreover, Harriman offered to pay the $10 per man delinquent dues which the rules of the committee required before members could gain admission to the hall where the meeting was held.

Odell telephoned his orders to Gruber. Gruber got the boys together. They paid their dues and put up a stiff fight for the Hughes resolution. The resolution was laid over to February 20 by a vote of 302 to 222, but the Harrison administration forces were surprised at the strength of the vote against them. On careful analysis, however, they can tell just where the bulk of the minority vote came from. After the 222 votes for Hughes precisely 150 were delivered by Odell under orders from Harriman. The remainder represented the real, sincere Hughes sentiment which exists in parts of this city.

I have taken the trouble to learn and to narrate these facts, not because the movements of New York politicians are so important in themselves, but because of the national significance of the episode. President Roosevelt has always believed that in the end "the interests" who are eager to defeat him and his policies would be found working for Governor Hughes. This episode shows that the president was right, so far as Harriman is concerned. The movement for Hughes in this state is rapidly drifting into a fight upon Roosevelt. Almost without exception the strong men who are working for Hughes are avowed and bitter enemies of President Roosevelt and his policies. Odell, Black, Aldridge, Brackett, all are haters of the man in the white house, and at their head, vindictive, eager implacable, is E. H. Harriman.

The New York newspapers, mostly favorable to Governor Hughes, severely criticize the administration at Washington for its use of federal officeholders and employees in opposing Hughes' indorsement. But not one newspaper here has ever mentioned the fact that of 222 votes for Hughes in the county committee 150 were furnished by Odell's machine.

Seven Years of Proof.

"I have had seven years of proof that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best medicine to take for coughs and colds and for every diseased condition of throat, chest or lungs," says W. V. Henry, of Panama, Mo. The world has had thirty-eight years of proof that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and colds, in grippe, asthma, hay fever, bronchitis, hemorrhage of the lungs, and the early stages of consumption. Its timely use always prevents the development of pneumonia. Sold under guarantee by all druggists, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

"Prohibition doesn't seem to have hurt the major. Hear him whistling."

"Yes; he thinks that gallon jug he ordered is on the way."—Atlanta Constitution.

How is Your Digestion?

Mrs. Mary Dowling, of No. 228 8th Ave., San Francisco, recommends a remedy for stomach trouble. She says: "Gratitude for the wonderful effect of Electric Bitters in a case of acute indigestion, prompts this testimonial. I am fully convinced that for stomach and liver troubles Electric Bitters is the best remedy on the market today." This great tonic and alterative medicine invigorates the system, purifies the blood and is especially helpful in all forms of female weakness. 50c at all druggists.

END THAW CASE
BY NEXT FRIDAY

Defense Will Close Its Side
Then—Evelyn Quits.

Letter By Harry Soon After His Wife Told of Relations With White

CONSIDERED A STRONG POINT.

New York, Jan. 22.—District Attorney Jerome's long and severe cross examination of Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw at the trial of her husband closed late yesterday. Attorneys for the defense then succeeded in placing in evidence a letter written by the defendant in the fall of 1903, which completely corroborated the claim that the girl who was to become his wife did tell him the story of her relations with Stanford White much as she had related it upon the stand at this and the former trial.

This letter was one of a dozen which were read to the jury as tending to corroborate Mrs. Thaw's testimony and as further tending to show the effect of her story upon the defendant's mind. Most of these letters were read to the jury in the former trial and were considered as one of the strongest bits of evidence in the hands of the defense.

Tomorrow morning Thaw's will and codicil made at the time of his marriage to Evelyn Nesbit, both of which were introduced last year, as further evidence of the irrationality on the part of the defendant will be proved and introduced as evidence. Then will follow the testimony of Miss Belle Morehouse Lawrence, of California, who was Thaw's teacher when he was six years old and could not talk intelligently, it is said.

Mrs. Lawrence kept a diary in which there are many entries concerning young Thaw, and an effort will be made to show this in the evidence. The defense hopes to close its case by Friday night.

LEFT/NOTE

CHARLIE THOMAS EXPLAINS SITUATION TO JAILER.

Prisoner Makes Escape From Chain Gang After Long Series of Hard Luck.

To escape from his troubles Charlie Thomas, colored, fined $20 yesterday morning for beating his wife, and having a warrant sworn out for false swearing, thought the best plan was to run, and he accomplished his feat successfully. Yesterday afternoon Jailer Wade Brown took the chain gang out to work, and Thomas, who had been in a fight, was cut badly and his left arm was hurt. Jailer Brown put the chains on Thomas and used him to carry water to the workmen from the Well distillery, near Tyler. Several trips had been made, but on one trip he stayed too long, and Jailer Brown went to look for him. A girl gave the direction of Thomas' flight and Jailer Brown followed him for some distance. The negro ran through swamps that the jailer could not and Mr. Brown did not shoot at the negro for fear of killing him. At the empty bucket Jailer Brown found this note scrawled: "Deputy Marshall—Am truly sorry adverse circumstances necessitate my making so unceremonious departure, for I want to passionately express my gratitude for de many courtesies you has shown me, brief as they bin our acquaintance. I wuz hungry and ye fed me, I wuz in jail and ye vizited me. All past lif has bin unfortunat. Las nite I dremt to brake dis sequence of bad luck. I go forth an' obey de command of morphons." Thomas must have had everything planned.

His Speech.

"I am afraid," said the candid critic "that your constituents won't take the trouble to read your speech. It is long and uninteresting."

"I made it so on purpose," answered Senator Sorghum. "Its length creates the impression that it is a pretty big piece of work, and if they don't read it they can't find fault with it."—Washington Star.
